COURSE OF STUDY

—IN—

DEPARTMENT OF MUSIC.

Rooms for this Department are tastefully finished and furnished in the College Building.

Music Lessons are given in the following branches: Piano, Organ, Voice Culture, and Theory. Theory includes Thorough Bass, Harmony, and Composition. Two lessons a week are given in each branch.

PIANO LESSONS.

Those beginning this study will be taught a correct position and touch from the first, how to play easily and gracefully, how to keep good time, how to produce good singing tones, how to play with good expression, etc.

COURSE OF STUDY FOR PIANO.

Primary Exercises and Scales.

First Book of Mechanical Studies.

Piano Movements.

Second Book of Mechanical Studies, together with appropriate Pieces, Sonatinas.

Scales and Art of Phrasing.

Lœschorn's Studies.

First Book, Velocity—Two or more Sonatas.

Musical Form—This includes a thorough analysis of each composition, pointing out phrases, passages, sections and periods, giving the interpretation of each of these several parts, and their relation to one another.

Second Book of Velocity—Etudes, with appropriate selections from the best composers.

ORGAN LESSONS.

Instructions are given in Church Music; the best manner of playing it; how to play with expression, and how to play all styles of Music written for the Organ.

VOICE CULTURE.

This will include study of tone and its application to words, Inhalation and Exhalation of Breath, Muscular Action, Enunciation and Delivery of Tone, Purity of Tone, Color, Timbre and Register, Resonance, Articulation, Quality, Quantity, Phrasing, Vocalizing, Expression, Musical Elocution, How to Preserve the the Voice. Illustrations of the various faulty and injurious methods of singing. This branch will also include the study of appropriate solos and selections from Opera and Oratorio.

HARMONY.

Those especially who wish to become skillful Organists should acquire a profound knowledge of Harmony. It is also a profitable study for players of other instruments and for singers, enabling them to comprehend music and to enjoy its beauties in a higher degree.

On this subject a well known writer has said: "Harmony is not a study solely for composers, but for everybody who reads or hears music, so that they may understand and enjoy it. Otherwise they only gaze on the gaunt skeleton of the art without feeling the warm breath of the soul."

COMPOSITION.

The pupils in this branch will learn the Principles of Tune, Formation and Musical Form. A thorough analysis of the different forms of Composition will be given. Special attention given to Vocal Compositions.

All candidates for graduation in any of the above named branches of Music, are required to have a fair knowledge of the Theory of Music, and are expected to study Musical History and Biography at least two terms.

Pupils are not allowed to enter practice rooms except at such times as are assigned them. The strictest punctuality is expected, both in practice and recitations.

Once every term there is a General Review, in which all pupils are expected to take part. To the careful Student these Reviews are of great value. The pupils have, at such times, a good opportunity of comparing themselves with others in their progress and style of performance; they gradually overcome embarrassment, and acquire that confidence which is so necessary in order to play or sing creditably before an audience. A musical education is of little account without this ability.

ART DEPARTMENT.

The Art Department, which has been recently added, supplies what has heretofore been a manifest lack in the College.

The art of "Oil Painting" has been justly celebrated from time immemorial. Until recently, owing to the difficulty of procuring the necessary materials in a convenient form, comparatively few have aspired to become accomplished in this direction. These difficulties having been removed, a lively impulse is now noticeable in the pursuit of art culture.

The aim of this Department, is to assist persons so desiring, to secure to themselves a first-class accomplishment, which will enable them to beautify their homes with meritorious works of art of their own production.

Very few who have felt the pleasing and powerful influences of this home decoration in places of culture and refinement, fail to appreciate the advantage of a practical knowledge of this fascinating art.

GENERAL INFORMATION.

LOCATION.

New Concord is a pleasant village, situated on the National Road, and Central Ohio Division of the B. & O. Railroad. It is easy of access from every direction. It is noted for the moral and religious character of its citizens. There is no saloon in the village or vicinity. In it there are one United Presbyterian church, one Reformed Presbyterian church, one Presbyterian church, one Methodist church, and one Baptist church.

BUILDINGS.

The building is pleasantly situated. It stands on an elevation immediately north of the village, and commands a beautiful view of the surrounding country.

OBJECTS CONTEMPLATED.

The aim of the officers of the Institution is to impart intellectual, moral and religious instruction. Believing that mental training without moral culture is beneficial, neither to the individual nor to society, the Faculty strive to promote the moral and religious improvement of the students. The main principles of Christianity—underlying all true morality—are kept constantly before their minds.

RELIGIOUS INSTRUCTION.

All students are required to assemble in the College Chapel at 8:15 a. m., for the worship of God. The exercises consist of selections sung from the Bible Songs, reading the Scriptures and prayer. On Sabbath students are required to attend some one of the churches in the village, as may be their own choice, or the choice of their parents.

GOVERNMENT.

The Government of the College is as nearly as possible, paternal. Appeals to the good sense and moral principles of the the students are usually found sufficient. Should these fail, the offender will be dismissed.

EXAMINATIONS.

These occur as follows: New students are required to be present the first day of each term, in order that their class standing may be determined by careful examination. At the close of each term there will be a written examination of each class. This examination will be most thorough, and the student who falls below 65 per cent. will be conditioned, until upon re-examination he reaches the required grade. Students leaving College before examination will be examined on their return; and except in case of sickness, will be charged fifty cents for each branch examined. The Senior examination takes place annually, five weeks before Commencement. This is expected to cover the course of study pursued during the senior year.

REPORTS.

At the close of every term a report of each student is sent to his parent or guardian, in which the class grade, examination grade, conduct and attendance are faithfully noted.

BOARDING.

Good boarding and lodging in the village and vicinity can be obtained on terms as reasonable as elsewhere. Lady students will room at such places only as are approved by the Faculty. The students almost invariably board in clubs. This is the popular plan and is very satisfactory. It is cleanlier and healthier—if not cheaper—than to try to cook for one's self, soiling clothing and filling the room with unpleasant odors. On this plan, expenses are about as follows:

Furnished rooms per week,	50 cents.
Cooking, per week,	50 cents.
Provisions, per week,	90 cents to $1.25.
Fuel and light, per week,	10 cents to 25 cents.
Total,	$2 00 to $2 50

The above statement can be relied upon. During the past year the cost of provisions, per week, in some clubs, has been below $1.00, and the average would hardly exceed $1.10 per week.

To maintain the social integrity of our students, the gentlemen and ladies are not permitted to board, room or club in the same house. Neither are they allowed to visit each other in their private rooms. The known violation of this rule will subject the transgressors to immediate expulsion. The gentlemen can visit the ladies in the family parlors where the ladies room.

The addition to our Faculty of a lady teacher, affords our young ladies the advantage of her social advice and companionship. Parents can rest assured that every precaution will be taken to secure the welfare of their sons and daughters in every respect.

LITERARY SOCIETIES.

In connection with the Institution there are three Literary Societies, the Aretean, the Philomathean, and the Union Literary. The Halls are finished and furnished in fine style, and the societies are in vigorous and successful operation. Students are required to join one of these Societies within three weeks after their matriculation. Future usefulness depends largely on the Literary training received in these Societies during college life.

CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATIONS.

A Christian Association has been in successful operation for several years, and has been well attended by students of both sexes. More recently a Young Ladies Christian Association has been organized. The two Associations now meet separately to transact business, but freqently meet together for devotional purposes. This movement is in harmony with the advanced position which woman is taking in moral and religious work.

MISSIONARY SOCIETIES.

A Missionary Society, composed of the Faculty and students, has been organized to co-operate with Grove City College, Westminister College, and the U. P. Theological Seminary of Allegheny, Pa., in supporting a missionary in the foreign field. This society will hold frequent meetings for prayer, and for conference relative to mission work. All contributions are voluntary.

LIBRARIES.

The Society Libraries have a good selection of books. In addition to these, there is a College Library, to which all the students have access. Thus provision is made for cultivating a literary taste and obtaining much information outside the curriculum of study.

READING ROOM.

Three years ago a College Reading Room Association was organized. The room is open every day from 1:50 to 4:00 p. m. and from 7:00 to 9:00 p. m., and is well supplied with the best current literature. These privileges are highly appreciated and well improved by the students. The thanks of the Association are heartily returned to all those publishers who have gratuitously furnished it with their publications.

ENGLISH LITERATURE.

Means have been secured for additional instruction in English Language and Literature. We are now prepared to give thorough instruction in the use of our own language, and to render our students conversant with the best English and American authors.

ATTENDANCE OF STUDENTS.

During the past year there has been a fair attendance of students. While some have been kept away by lack of means, others have come because a thorough education can be secured at Muskingum for much less money than at most Colleges.

The College is under the care of the United Presbyterian Synod of Ohio, but all denominations enjoy equal privileges.
